DETAILED ACTION

This Application has been examined. The original claim 1 is pending. The examination results are as following.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Sun (U.S. Patent No. 6,643,721).

Sun teaches a computer interface system having a plurality of input devices 46 and 48 (logical Mappers 54 and 56) for a computer, comprising: an input device recognition information keeping unit 54 and 56 that allows a double-click to be recognized for each of the input device, a double-click determine unit 58 (Logical Devices 58); and an information notifying unit 44 (processor 44) (see figure 2; col. 3, lines 15-23; col. 5, line 3 to col. 6, line 54).

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: US Pub. No. 2003/0051209 A1 teaches double-click recognition for mouse and keyboard, etc.
